We are all familiar with the Latin mandate, Carpe Diem, to sieze the day. For clergy whose lives are often filled to the brim with competing demands and opportunities for ministry, study, worship preparation, pastoral visits, capital campaigns, committee meetings, etc., etc., etc., it is often hard to find time to sieze a moment, much less a whole day. That is precisely why it is so important to make the opportunity, to engage in self-care and to provide mutual support to one another in this call that we share. Toward that end, your fellow clergy would like to invite you to take some special time away on the evening before this year's Southeast Conference Annual Meeting to join with one another and "Sieze the Dinner."

All clergy of the Southeast Conference - licensed, commissioned, and ordained, in parish and specialized ministries - and their partners and spouses, are invited to a special clergy gathering on the evening preceeding the SEC Annual Meeting. A cash bar happy hour will begin at 6:30 p.m. and dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m.
Reservations are required and a $10 donation per person is requested to help offset the costs of a lovely dinner and evening together. (Consider it a cheap date with your fellow ministers!) The major costs of this event are being underwritten by a special
